

Boulder Creek Elementary School Boulder Creek, California

Civil Engineering

Client Reference:

Steve Parker, AIA
Beverly Prior + HMC Architects
417 Montgomery, 8th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94104
(415) 777 9422

Budget: $1.2 Million

The San Lorenzo Valley Unified School District constructed a new 3,500 SF building housing three new classrooms using bond measure funds.

Mesity-Miller Engineering prepared civil engineering plans for site demolition and relocation of a web of existing underground water, sewer, drainage, and fire services to make room for the new building. We also prepared the design for the new underground utility plan to serve the classrooms, site drainage, and grading plans.